Cadiz, Jan. 4. N. S.

THE Lyme Man of War commanded by Captain Trevanian, arrived here the 25th of the last Month from Tetuan; He brought with him a Moorish Collonel to buy some Jewels by order of the Alcaide of Tetuan; Captain Delavall came with them, but Landed at Malaga, and comes hither by Land. Two English Men of War commanded by Captain Munden and Captain Edwards, sailed from hence the 2d Instant to Cruize. The Almirante of Castile came some days ago to St. Lucar, and is expected here in a short time. The 3 Spanish Merchant Ships which arrived here some days ago from the West-Indies, are unlading; They came from the Havana in company of 2 more, one of which is put into St. Lucar, but the other having on board Don Martin de Zavala Commander in chief of this Squadron, was separated from the rest in bad Weather, and is still missing. Our last Advices from Ceuta say, the Moors continue before that Place, but have not of late made any considerable Attack, being disheartened by the ill Success they have had during this tedious Siege; On the other hand the Spanish Garrison receive frequent Recruits from Spain, and are plentifully supplied from time to time with all sorts of Provisions and Ammunition.

Corunna, Jan. 27. The Spanish Expedition Pacquet-boat arrived here yesterday from Falmouth, and will sail again as soon as the Wind is fair. Our last Letters from Madrid say, the King of Spain enjoys a perfect Health; That the Conde of Monterey continued at his House in the Country; and 'twas discoursed, that the Almirante would very soon be sent for to Court again.

Warsaw, Jan. 5. The Cardinal Primate is gone to Lowitz, where he intends to continue till the King of Poland returns from Dresden; The Cardinal before his departure from hence, had a meeting with the Elector of Brandenburgh's Deputies, and having in their presence put the Jewels, which were lately given into his Hands by the Crown-Treasurer, into a Box, and made an Inventory of them, the same was shut up, and sealed with his Seal and with the Seals of the said Deputies, after which the said Box was delivered to the Castellan Wratzlewsky and the Starost Visky, who are appointed Commissioners from this Republick to receive the City of Elbing from the Elector of Brandenburgh's Commissioners, to whom they are to deliver the said Jewels the day before that Place is evacuated. The Cardinal having received Advice that the King of Poland has deferred his return hither till after the Carnaval, he has sent to him the Circular Letters for the meeting of the General Diet to be signed, and as soon as they are brought back, they will be dispatched to the several Palatinates, to the end they may choose their Deputies, and the Diet be ready to meet soon after the King's return. The Crown-General and the other General Officers continue their Conferences at Radom, for settling the Arrears of the Forces of the Crown, and of the Dutchy of Lithuania, which amount to a very great Sum.

Copenhagen, Jan. 12. There is yet no time set for the King's Journey to Holstein, and some are of opinion 'tis quite put off. The new Levies are carried on with great Diligence, and the Ministers who are entrusted with the Care of Military Matters, have given Directions for furnishing the Magazines in this Kingdom with Stores and Provisions, and for putting both the Sea and Land Forces on as good a foot as is possible. The Differences between this Court and the Envoys from Foreign Princes residing here, about the manner of their Reception, and some other Points of Ceremony, are not yet adjusted, so that none of them has yet had Audience of the King.

Vienna, Jan. 9. Orders are sent to the Emperor's Officers in Hungary, to get together a sufficient quantity of Provisions for the Subsistence of the Forces that are to be employed in finishing the new Fortifications of Arat, which Work is to be begun as soon as the Season will permit. The States of Austria will open their Assembly in a day or two, and 'tis said Count Cumitz, Vice-Chancellor of the Empire, is to preside there as the Emperor's Commissioner; They have sent two of their Body to Compliment the Grand Signior's Ambassador on his Arrival in these Parts; The said Ambassador was received at Raab with much Solemnity, the Garrison and Burghers were in Arms, and the Governor entertained him very nobly; His Excellency continues his Journey towards this place, and he is to stay at Pattendorf till every thing be in a readiness here for his Reception. The 6th Instant being the Empress's Birth-day, who entred into the 45th year of her Age, she received upon this occasion the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Quality, and in the evening the Court were entertained with a Ball, and a Consort of Musick. Cardinal Sancta Croce, the Pope's Nuntio, is indisposed, which is the reason he has not yet begun his Journey to Rome. Cardinal Grimani and Cardinal Collonitz are preparing to go thither, but 'tis believed the latter will be first sent
